

Spatial analysis of the performance of primary education students in the South/Southwest region of Minas Gerais

This study investigates the spatial distribution of the performance of students from elementary education among cities from the South/Southwest region of Minas Gerais, in 2015. The results suggests that neighbor cities do not tend to show similar average grades.

Keywords: Elementary education, Spatial Statistics, Minas Gerais.